Bachelor of Arts in Theological Studies
January 2015

COURSE OUTLINE*Course Description

A study of Bible's teaching concerning itself, dealing extensively with the doctrine of revelation and inspiration. Prerequisite: (TH207)

Course Objectives

1. Student will have a firm conviction to stand on the Bible for any interpretive/ theological issues.
2. Student will gain proper understanding on the doctrines of revelation and inspiration.

Course Textbooks*Required Textbook

Strong, A.H. Systematic Theology : Volume 1. Toronto: Judson, 1907 (252- 554 pp.).

Course Requirements

1. Paper. The student is to write one theological paper from the required textbook mentioned above. The paper must be typed, one inch margins, double-spaced, and 20–25 pages in length, including bibliography. The paper should follow the turabian guidelines and conform to the seminary manual for papers and theses. Student has to create his/ her own outline from the textbook, and develop his content and argument discussing with the ideas of the author from the same book as stating its strength and weakness of the paper.

Note: Though the student discusses with the textbook and develops his content from the same, he/ she must consult with other valid/ scholarly works for better understanding of the subject.

Course Grading

- The student should consult the catalog for the grading scale used in the seminary.
- The paper constitutes 100% of the course grade.
- Students may turn in class assignments through e-mail in a word/ pdf format as your mentor demands.
- Late assignments, unless the result of circumstances beyond the student's control, are not accepted.
- Except when permission has been granted by the mentor, the complete work not turned in by the end of the program time limits, is recorded as a zero and the student's grade computed accordingly.
